

Loading page

Main page (SCSG)

The main page show users the upcoming events of SCSG, swipe up and down to see more events

Once user click on the event, user can see more detail of the event.

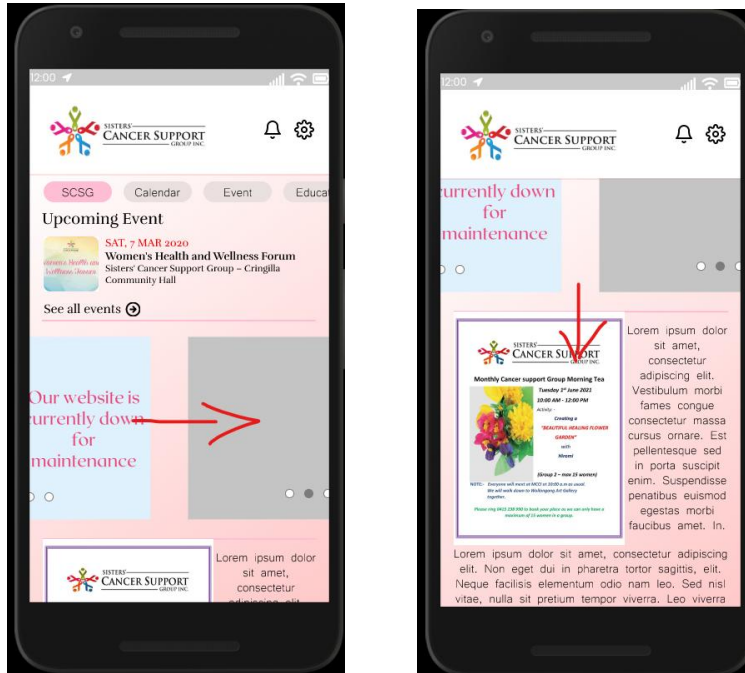

Click on the 'show all events', it will navigate to the 'Event' section to see current events and past events.

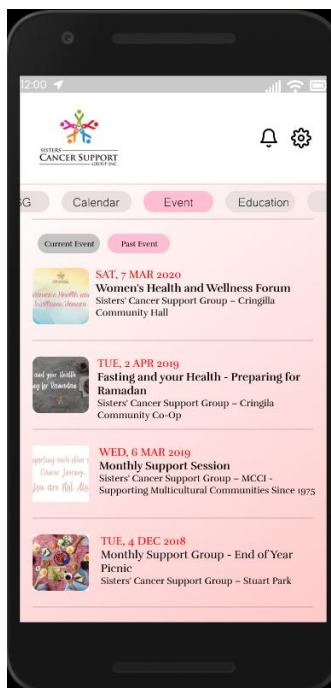

The second part of main page is to show the recent announcements, for example, recently, the website of SCSG is under maintain that users may not be able to access the website. Users can slide left and right, which makes the whole interface more concise.

Swipe down to see extend information

Event

as we mentioned before, it presents the current events and the event history.

Education

This page provides corresponding rehabilitation training information for different cancer survivors.

User finds cancer recovery education linked to their case through search function.

Video

The search function in videos

Users enter keywords, allowing users to find related videos faster.

Community

It allows users to share their own experiences, once user click on the button text field, it will automatically pop up an input interface.

About us

Dislay the history of SCSG, activities, founder and the Essence Model, click on the 'show more' button to see more information.

Contact-us

Click on the FaceBook to navigate to Facebook.

Click on mobile contact number to make phone call to SCSG

Click on the website button to access SCSG website on phone browser.

